Books at Macy's

We sell books, as we sell everything else, at lower prices than any other store. The Book Trust has not driven us out of business. Our twelve year old fight with the Book Trust has been made in the interest of the public as much as in the interest of our customers. It is a fight to maintain the principle of freedom to sell at our own prices. Owing to this fight, we still have difficulty in obtaining books, particularly new fiction. Therefore, to make our regular profit, we cannot afford to undersell other stores to a greater extent than 10% on these books.

But on other merchandise, which we have as great or greater facilities than other stores for obtaining, the Macy Saving often mounts up to 20% and 25%.

Below is a list of new fiction, giving Macy prices and prices elsewhere:

COULDN'T PROVE CASE.

Men Arrested for $20,000 Gem Theft Are Let Go.

Isaac Hellman and Isidor Fellman, who were arrested last week on a charge of having taken $20,000 worth of uncut diamonds from Louis Stern & Co., 54 John street, in November, 1910, were discharged by Magistrate Appleton in the Tombs court. The Magistrate said there wasn't enough evidence on which to hold them.

The two men were arrested on information given the police by Joseph Milovsky, who until three weeks ago was a partner with Fellman in the automobile business. Soon after the partnership broke up Milovsky told Stern that he knew something about the robbery. He told the police that he could prove that Fellman and Hellman had worked together in the robbery, but he didn't furnish the proof.

Miller, bolted on Long Beach at an auto and in the wagon into a tree. Miss Eldridge was thrown into a lot and struck on her head. She was picked up unconscious and carried to the home of a relative, Dr. John Dean, who attended her, found her suffering from shock, contusions and internal injuries.

COURT SHUTS OUT HOWARD GANS'S BRIEF

Appellate Division Refuses to Permit One to Be Filed in Brandt Case.

The application by DeLancey Nicoll and Paul D. Cravath to file a brief, as friends of the court, in the Finkbeiner Brandt habeas corpus proceeding, in which they sought to appear as counsel for Mortimer L. Schiff and Howard R. Gans, was denied yesterday by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, although no objection had been made to the filing of the brief. The court wrote in a memorandum accompanying the application the lawyers said in reference to the admission of the affidavit by Carl Fischer-Hansen to the effect that Brandt had withdrawn his plea of not guilty and had pleaded guilty on the advice of Howard Gans:

"The record, as it is thus presented to the court, has been so framed as to inject a suggestion of fraud in the procurement of the plea, so as to pillory the counsel who appeared for the complaining witness without giving him any opportunity in this court to defend his reputation by a refutation of the charges."

The lawyers explained that Justice Gerard, who heard the habeas corpus application, directed that as a matter of courtesy to Mr. Gans, his denial of the charges against him might be made a part of the general record of the Supreme Court, but declined to permit them to be made a part of the records of this proceeding, or to reopen the proceedings to admit them.

With the memorandum were filed supporting affidavits by John D. Lindsay, and by John H
